FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONSULTANTS CATHERINE KIM WALKER AND MARY LEES JOIN THE MORGAN SAMUELS COMPANY TEAM

LOS ANGELES, CA – October 1, 2007 – Morgan Samuels Company, a leading national management consulting firm specializing in executive recruitment, announced today the additions of Catherine Kim Walker and Mary Lees as Consultants in the Beverly Hills office. “Our new Consultants will work closely with our new Seattle and Florida offices to find and recruit exceptional talent for our clients. Their experience in marketing, technology, and law are areas we feel very relevant to the growth of Morgan Samuels. We will continue to invest in outstanding talent in order to deliver excellence of execution for our clients,” said Bert Hensley, Chairman and CEO of Morgan Samuels.

Prior to joining Morgan Samuels, Ms. Walker was the Vice President of Marketing for Green Sandwich Technologies, a manufacturer of environmentally friendly structural building products. Prior to Green Sandwich, Ms. Walker was the Director of Marketing for Bluebeam Software, a leading file sharing technology company. The company’s solutions enabled construction project team members to share and markup large format design drawings digitally, saving large AEC firms millions of dollars in printing and shipping fees a year. Earlier in her career Ms. Walker worked in a marketing and project management capacity for New York Times Digital, the digital arm of The New York Times, and FairMarket, Incorporated, an e-commerce technology company that had its initial public offering in 2001 and was acquired by eBay in 2002. Ms. Walker holds an MBA from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth and a BA in History from Dartmouth College.

Ms. Lees was previously a practicing Attorney in a high volume national law firm. Ms. Lees’ practice focused on defending large credit providers at both the state and federal level. Ms. Lees began her litigation career in general civil litigation, focusing on employment and entertainment law and construction defects. Ms. Lees has also been a former Human Resources Manager at Movielink, LLC; a joint venture company owned by six major film studios. Earlier in her career, Ms. Lees worked in international film sales, where she analyzed the products available in all major film markets for seven international distribution companies. Ms. Lees holds a JD from University of Miami, where she spent a semester studying International Law at University College of London and received her BS in Psychology from Loyola University, New Orleans.
